

THOMAS R. RAMSEY JR.

Born and raised in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania.

Son of Virginia (Sarah) Mack and the late Thomas R. Ramsey Sr.

Loving husband to the late Portia A. Ramsey, and devoted father to Thomas R. Ramsey III & Stephanie Ramsey.

- Educated in the Phoenixville Area Public School System.
- Phoenixville Area High School Class of 1970
- An athlete throughout high school, he played baseball & football
- Upon graduating from high school, he attended West Chester State College.
- Worked Twenty years at the Malvern, Pennsylvania, Post Office.

It was during this time he discovered his true passion and gift for videography.

- In 1995, he began his professional video career with Pottstown Community Television (PCTV) as producer, director and editor.
- While working in Pottstown, his roots were still deeply planted in Phoenixville where he produced several shows in the community including, “ The Pulse of Phoenixville” which features “Poking Around Phoenixville”, “For The Health of It” and the “Community Service Spotlight”.
- First to broadcast the Phoenixville Borough Council Meetings on TV to encourage more community involvement.
- Created several documentaries for the Phoenixville community including the History Of the Phoenix Steel Company & The Greenway Project.
- Spearheaded Phantom TV at Phoenixville Area High School in 2002, from Lights, Camera to Action.

Recipient of the Following Awards

- Chamber of Commerce Award, 1999
- Champions of the Community Award, 2001
- Superior Effort to Launch Phantom TV Award
- Community Health Leadership Academy Graduate, 2007
- 2007 Laurretta Woodson Award

Member of the Following Boards & Community Organizations

- Schuylkill River Heritage Center
- Donald J. L. Coppedge Scholarship Committee

Dedicated his professional and personal life to making Phoenixville a better place.

Always giving unselfishly of his time and service to benefit others.