

4-7-19 Greetings Parents and Guardians – This week marks our last full week before a much deserved spring break, beginning Friday April 19th. Classes resume on Monday, April 29th. Please see below for some important information taking place at the HS in the meantime.

AP Review Sessions –Beginning on May 6th through May 17th, AP Testing will officially be underway. In an effort to prepare our students in the best way possible, teachers will be offering review sessions outside of the school day that your child may want to consider attending if they are enrolled in that course. All review sessions will take place in the classroom of the teacher unless the students are informed of a different location by their teacher. Please see below for a schedule of these review sessions.

Scheduling Updates '19-'20 – Some scheduling updates for 2019-2020! At this stage, students will be meeting with their respective school counselors to discuss their course selections for next year. From an administrative perspective, our team is hard at work building a master schedule. Our goal is to share schedules with students before the end of the school year in May. More updates to follow!

Million Page Challenge - The PASD Million Pages Challenge has begun! Our librarians are leading the charge, confident that we as a District can read at least a million pages between now and the end of the school year! Students, teachers, staff, parents, and community members are invited to join us in celebrating reading for FUN. Your children will be learning more about it in school, but we hope you will encourage them to participate (and that you will join them!). It's easy to do—just click here to visit the website and enter the information each time you finish a book. There will be incentives along the way, and a friendly competition between buildings. Let's do this Phoenixville!

Phoenixville Summer Camp signups are now online and taking applications for the summer! Click here to view the many offerings available this summer!

Phoenixville Area School District would like to continue connecting with you via email. If you prefer to be removed from our list, please contact Phoenixville Area School District directly.
